Bronze Memorials Stolen from Naramata Cemetery

On September 27, 2019 maintenance crews noted several bronze memorials dating back to 1940, had been stolen from the Naramata Cemetery. A total of six bronze plaques commemorating eight individuals were removed from their headstones at the cemetery.

The Regional District of Okanagan-Similkameen (RDOS) is in the process of contacting the families affected by this incident. “The RDOS will help facilitate the replacement of the stolen memorials,” says RDOS chair Karla Kozakevich. “Anyone with information is asked to contact Penticton RCMP.”

Crews have increased monitoring at the Naramata Cemetery and residents are asked to report any suspicious activity.
