

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

As a flexible and visionary accounting professional you have the integrity and skills to manage the finances of a municipal corporation. Do you also have the talent to work well with people and to consistently foster the best possible performance from your staff? Can you bring enlightened financial leadership as well as strategic focus to existing operations? Would you enjoy playing a key role in local government decision-making and providing valued services to your community? If so, we want to hear from you.

The Town of Oliver is looking to attract a seasoned financial executive as Chief Financial Officer. Reporting to the Municipal Manager as a key member of the senior management team, you will assume responsibility for the overall financial management of the municipality. Leading a small department, the CFO provides support to council and to municipal departments in strategic planning, budgeting, financial reporting and monitoring, risk management, human resources and corporate performance management.

Strategically located near the south end of the Okanagan Valley, in south-central British Columbia, the Town of Oliver sits in the only desert area of Canada. Oliver is home to 4,800 permanent residents and supports a trading area of 10,000. Its attractive South Okanagan climate and location fosters winter and summer recreational activities including skiing, golf, hiking, cycling, and water sports, along with a full selection of indoor recreation options. Known as the Wine Capital of Canada, Oliver is the ideal setting for growing wine grapes, and produces many of the highest rated wines in the world! Oliver's labour force, social services, infrastructure, lifestyle alternatives and recreational assets provide for a healthy community and a strong base for sustained growth.

This is a unique opportunity to become part of the vibrant future of the Town of Oliver. Your natural talents, skills and training gained from past local government experience will increase your suitability as our chosen candidate. If your background mirrors our requirements, you are invited to forward your resume in confidence by Monday, March 15, 2010 by mail or email to:
